

2012 Positive Parenting Series

Sponsored by Coleman Professional Services, Kent City Schools, and the Kent/Woodridge Parent Mentor Program

Join us for one topic – or join us for all three

February 29

6 – 7:15 pm

12 Keys to Effective Parenting

Anne Van Wagoner, PCC-S, LCDCIII and Alicia Pascoe, PC

What is your parenting style? Learn 12 key concepts to strengthen your relationship with your child. Explore healthy ways to communicate, set/keep family rules, and stay hopeful about your kids. Questions welcomed.
Join us for an interactive, lively night of learning and support.

March 8

6 – 7:15 pm

Mental Health Issues in our Children: Bipolar and Oppositional Defiance Disorders

Dr. Pacer MD and Alicia Pascoe PC

What's happening to my child? Gain insights into the symptoms and treatments of both of these disorders. We will help you to help your child. Bring your questions for Dr. Scott Pacer, our local psychiatrist and expert on this topic.

March 14

6 – 7:15 pm

Autism: Does This Fit my Child?

Ruth Anderson MA, Kim Kost, and Dena Ferner

The term autism covers a broad spectrum. Learn the facts—what to look for and how that diagnosis is determined. Understand the diagnostic criteria and what the research is telling us. Find out about current treatments. Speak to both professionals and a panel of parents about resources and supports that are available.

Kent Free Library

2nd floor Community Room
312 W Main Street
Kent OH 44240

For more information on the programs contact the Parent Mentor at 330-676-7661 or ke_parentmentor@kentschools.net

In the event of inclement weather—this program will align with Kent City Schools. If evening activities are canceled for Kent City Schools, this program will also be canceled. If in doubt, dial 330-676-7661 and listen for information on the voicemail greeting.