

BRANCHING OUT

Roosevelt High School

August 2007

Dear Parents, Students and Friends of Theodore Roosevelt High School,

Wow! August is here and the opening of a new school year is nearly upon us! It has been a wonderful summer, weather wise, and the next several weeks are predicted to follow suit. You know school is around the corner when you see our fall athletic teams and our band members working to prepare for the coming season. Our custodial staff and maintenance staffs have been busy making the physical plant a welcoming place and summer school has come to a close. Students have been coming in to check on a variety of things for the upcoming school year and teachers, as well. There have been a number of personnel changes and room changes and we prepare for another great school year.

As in the past, our school opening will follow a specific schedule of events:

Student schedules will be mailed out the week of August 13. An updated schedule will be available to all students upon arrival.

Freshman Orientation will be Monday evening, August 27 at 7:00 pm in our auditorium for all incoming ninth graders and their parents. Watch for a separate mailing for details!

On Wednesday August 29, only incoming ninth graders and students new to our school in grades 10, 11, & 12 will report to school. The day will begin at 7:35 a.m. in our auditorium and the freshman will be in attendance the entire day, dismissing at 2:34 p.m. Our new students will be dismissed at 10:30.

On Thursday August 30, all students-grades 9, 10, 11, & 12 will report to school and be in attendance for the entire day. The day will begin with First Period classes at 7:35 a.m. and end at 2:34 p.m.

I am excited about the opening of our new year and extend a warm welcome to everyone, especially to the families of incoming ninth graders and students new to our school district. Roosevelt continues to be recognized as an outstanding school, as preliminary results from the state department of education indicate that our school will be receiving an "excellent" rating for the fourth year in a row! Efforts to improve are ever on going and we continue to seek new ways to serve the needs of our diverse student population. We hope everyone will come to share in our pride and excitement for Theodore Roosevelt High School! As in the past, our monthly newsletter, the Branching Out, will serve as one of the primary communication links for you and your family. We work to make it informative, responsive, and comprehensive.

This cover letter will seek to give you my best thinking about school and learning, current trends in our school, and issues that impact our students and families. We live in an ever-changing, complex world where the economic expectations of our young people will demand a new set of skills and understanding most of us are struggling to even imagine. As a school, we continuously balance the love of learning as intellectual development and enlightenment, with the need to also gain these skills. We want high academic rigor for our students as well as an understanding of the relevance of that learning in facing real world unpredictable situations. In simple terms, we want our students to be critical thinkers and problem solvers in any endeavor they choose in the future. Within this context, it is imperative that schools help frame the conversations that are vital for improved student learning and performance. In addition, we are committed to sharing the trends in thinking from our parents, students, and teachers in hopes of stimulating your own thoughts about school related topics. Your feedback is always encouraged and welcomed, either orally or written! The remainder of the newsletter provides you with important calendar dates, program reviews, recognition of students, and overviews of the many activities related to the high school experience.

Theodore Roosevelt High School's mission is defined by a foundation we call our four "pillars" that support the work of our school. In no particular order they are the following.

- We recognize and work toward the development of intellectual capacity in all students.
- We seek to help students acquire those life skills necessary to become productive citizens.
- We maintain a culture that supports building healthy and appropriate relationships with others.
- We promote the development of personal character, helping students to acquire a framework for making good decisions.

We call this and everything that is unique to our school and how we do things as "The Roosevelt Way!" I hope you noticed the word "we" throughout our mission. All of this can only happen with a commitment to these principles from students, teachers, parents, and community members. The work is on-going and ever evolving these areas to provide the best possible experience to our students. This is what makes Roosevelt unique and sustaining!

So, after a restful summer, the new school year begins. As always, students will bring their hopes and dreams, their anxiety and fears, their youth and exuberance, and their energy and talents to the classrooms of Roosevelt. Our goal will be to help them grow into thoughtful, educated, and caring adults. To this end, we pledge our efforts and seek to partner with parents in support of their student. Please, never hesitate to call our school (673-9595) or my home on evenings and weekends (678-3381), or e-mail me at ke_rsidoti@kentschools.net if you need help or you just need to talk with someone about a school related issue.

I hope this Branching Out finds you and your family relaxed, rested, healthy and safe.

ADMINSTRATIVE CHANGES FOR THE 2007-2008 SCHOOL YEAR

MR. TOM LARKIN, former Assistant Principal at Roosevelt, has become the Principal at Robert Stanton Middle School located on the west side of the secondary campus. We congratulate Mr. Larkin and wish him well in his new-assignment.

MR. DENNIS LOVE has been promoted from Dean of Students to the Assistant Principal's position. We are pleased that Mr. Love will continue to provide strong leadership to our school in this capacity.

MR. PAUL MILCETICH will assume the position of Dean of Students. Mr. Milcetich graduated from Theodore Roosevelt High School in 1996, went on to Hiram College receiving his Bachelor's Degree in 2000, and Graduated from Kent State University in 2003, with a Degree in Education Administration. He has taught nine years at Solon High School, and he and his wife have recently relocated back to Kent. We welcome Mr. Milcetich and congratulate him on his new assignment.

MR. ARDEN SOMMERS will return as the Assistant Principal for grades 11 and 12, and continue his responsibilities in coordinating the activities and graduation of the Senior Class, as well as leading teaching and learning initiatives for faculty and staff.

MRS. KATHY THOMAS will continue in her role as Director of Career and Community Education, and serve as our liaison to the Six District Compact. Her role will expand to include career initiatives at Stanton Middle School.

MR. ROGER SIDOTI will continue to serve as the Principal of Theodore Roosevelt High School as well as assuming the role of Secondary Campus Director for the Kent City Schools Grades 6 thru 12, responsible for both the middle school and high school.

FAIRNESS/JUSTICE ARE THE JUNE CHARACTER TRAITS

The monthly character trait for June will focus on Fairness/Justice. Our definition says students should:

- Show objectivity;
- Possess a sense of honesty, justice, and fair play;
- Form judgments and conclusions only after all perspectives of an issue have been considered;
- Consider the unique characteristics of individuals and situations when making decisions.

Some related terms would include: objectivity, impartiality, good sportsmanship, justice, and sensitivity.

This trait is evident when people are observed:

- Playing fairly and following the rules
- Showing consideration of other people's wants and needs
- Treating all people justly
- Tolerating all ages, occupations, races, religions, and those who have disabilities.

We hope many students and adults will embrace fairness and justice and apply them as they relate to other people.

4 TRHS STUDENTS RECEIVE RECOGNITION @ INTERNATIONAL DECA CONFERENCE

Theodore Roosevelt DECA students have just returned from the International DECA Career Development Conference, which was held in Orlando, Florida April 27-May 2. Students were in Orlando for 6 days attending the conference. This year's DECA Career Development was host to over 15,000 students and advisors from all 50 states, Puerto Rico, Guam, Canada, Mexico and Germany! Each of the 30 competitive vents has approximately 160 participants or teams competing in the event. This was Roosevelt's 22nd consecutive trip to this conference. Please join us in congratulating the following Roosevelt students who received honors at the conference.

SHAWN CRONE (senior) 1st Place finish Fashion Merchandising Promotion Plan.

Shawn developed a hypothetical two-week promotion plan for a local apparel company. Shawn's project included a detailed budget, employee responsibilities and a detailed analysis of the retail store that he selected for his project. A panel of judges evaluated Shawn's 10-page promotion plans and he was required to deliver a 15 minute technical presentation detailing his plan. Shawn is only the third RHS student to receive top honors at the international level. With his win, Shawn will receive a $1,000 cash prize and his manuscript will be published for other DECA members and advisors to purchase. Shawn will also receive an honorarium for his published work.

ALEXANDER TRACY (11th -Hudson) 2nd Place finish Entrepreneurship Participating Event

Alex completed a 10-page business plan proposing a new, hypothetical business. The business plan includes a complete financial plan, marketing plan, and an organizational plan. Alex also delivered a 15-minute presentation to a panel of judges. With his 2nd place finish, Alex will receive $500 cash prize, his paper will be published and made available to other DECA advisors and he will receive an honorarium for this publication.

STACEY HEITKAMP & JOHN KOVOLYAN (12th) 3rd Place finish Community Service Project

These students organized and implemented a fundraising and community service project for the Monarch Foundation. The Monarch Foundation was established after the untimely passing of Roosevelt English teacher, Leslie Leonard. The students wrote a 30-page detailing the project organization, implementation and outcomes. Students also have to deliver a technical presentation to a panel of judges for this competition. These students were finalists in their competition and finished in 3rd place for their event.

To become a finalist (top 16) at the international level is truly a remarkable accomplishment. With 160 competitors in each event, students must be nearly flawless in both the written project and oral presentation. To place in the top 3 in any event is something that many DECA Advisors and students work towards their entire career; which many never accomplish. It is very special to have a student place in the top 10 of any event. All students who advance to the finals in their events are enshrined in the TRHS DECA Hall of Fame. I am always amazed at the effort that the students have dedicated to their respective projects this year. Students have worked feverishly and deserve the recognition that they have received. I am proud of all of the students and will especially miss the graduating senior class; they have certainly raised the bar and expectations for future classes. For the second consecutive year Roosevelt DECA has received more awards than all but 3 chapters, maintaining Roosevelt's status as one of the top programs in the country.

Without the help and support of the Kent City School's administration and entities such as Kent State's College of Business Administration and the Center of Excellence for Entrepreneurship and Business Innovation, this year would not have been as successful as it has been. We also had a tremendous amount of support from RHS DECA alumni and Mr. Allan Henderson, a retired DECA Advisor from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. The help and support from Heidi Cowan was also a major part in the success that the students experienced at nationals. Mrs. Cowan helped proofread papers and helped students prepare presentations for the international convention. Cowan also served as a chaperone in Orlando.

All students, including those who are home-schooled or attend other schools, are welcome to enroll. The Kent Community Education Office is located at Roosevelt High School in Room 515. All students participating in Driver Education are responsible to the Kent City School District Student Conduct Code.

Each 3-week session meets six times for "in class" instruction—Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:45 p.m. through 9:00 p.m. in Room 506 at Roosevelt. Students then individually schedule their 8 hours of "behind the wheel" instruction directly with National Driver Training School at 1-888-994-2200. The 24 hours of "in class" instruction and 8 hours "behind the wheel" instructions are required by law.

Students must be 15 years and 5 months of age to attend the classroom and 15 years and 6 months for the "behind the wheel" instruction. This is the law.

Fee for the course is $320 payable by check or money order to Kent Community Education. Payment in full is required prior to the first day of class. Please read all dates carefully for your session to be sure that the dates do not interfere with your co-curricular activities. No refunds will be issued after the first class session. If school is canceled due to emergency for the school day, i.e., weather, Driver Training class is also canceled. The minimum number of students to hold a class each session is five.

Rough Rider Fitness Center

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

ROUGH RIDER'S MISSION STATEMENT

The primary goal of the Rough Rider strength and conditioning program is to produce highly skilled athletes through designing and administering structured programs, which improve athletic performance, and reduce the occurrence of athletic injuries

Each program is designed for sport specific training to achieve peak physical performance. Methods used include: strength, stretching, aerobic, anaerobic, and plyometric exercises

The staff develops training programs based on physical evaluations in order to bring about desired results. Factors such as body composition, flexibility, muscular strength, muscular endurance, and cardiovascular endurance are taken into consideration during the development of our programs.

The Rough Rider student athletes benefit from a comprehensive and individualized strength and conditioning program, designed to ensure the highest level of athletic performance.

Coaches of this program provide instruction specific to the individual both in and out of season, and in collaboration with the Rough Rider athletic training and medical staffs.

The program challenges our athletes in the aspects of leadership, work ethic, winning attitude, and above average ability to follow instruction.

PAIN IS TEMPORARY...

PRIDE IS FOREVER.....

Keys to Our Success by Coach Ben Barlow

The 2006 – 2007 school year became a banner year for Roosevelt Athletics. The school's fall sports teams got the ball rolling with strong showings, and the momentum they created continues well into the spring sports season. As a former Roosevelt athlete and a current coach, I am pleased with the recent success that our teams and athletes have attained. I believe there is a correlation between the recent athletic success, and the continuous improvement of the Rough Rider Fitness Center. Many of Roosevelt's student athletes have committed to weight training, and understand the importance of strength and conditioning in relation to their sport(s). In order to compete and excel in the Portage Trail Conference, the Greater Cleveland High School Hockey League, or the other leagues our athletes are a part of, they must be as strong or stronger than their competition. I was a student athlete at Roosevelt from 1992 – 1996, and our access to weight training was vastly different than what is available today. The always improving Rough Rider Fitness Center is a huge step up from what past Roosevelt athletes had at their disposal.

The facility is very well taken care of, and provides all athletes with many options for strength training.

The greatest difference between the mid 1990's and now is human resources. Coach Hockett is an amazing motivator and the ideal person to be in charge of Roosevelt's Strength and Conditioning Program. Coach Hockett is always excited to help students and he lives for Roosevelt athletics. Mr. Jurging is also a tremendous asset to the Rough Rider Fitness Center. Mr. Jurging creates training programs that help get the most out of our student athletes. Mr. Jurging has played a large role in the recent success of the ice hockey team. The hockey players have bought into his program and the results have been amazing. The players have excelled against their competition, their strength and conditioning made that possible.

On behalf of the ice hockey team, I would like to thank Coach Hockett, Mr. Jurging, Mr. Rutzky and especially the Roosevelt All-Sports Booster Organization for their work with the Fitness Center. Good luck to all the Roosevelt athletic teams and athletes as we head into the 2007 - 2008 school year.

What do you like about the ROUGH RIDER FITNESS CENTER?

A student perspective: Senior Donald Robinson

Over the past couple of years the weight room has been a place where I could go and just do the work that so many people complain about. We as a school believe that we do not need any improvement in our athletic ability as a whole. Well, this is just not the case anymore. You hear about other schools and programs working all year round for the next season. We at Roosevelt believe that we do not need to do that, we already have the "talent" that we need to succeed. Well I am sorry to say but in today's world, hard work will beat talent every single time.

This is why our off season and in season weight room habits are so important for us to have success in the present and future.

I have found the weight room to be that answer to our ever declining athletic ability. The weight room has given me a place to work and watch my body change over the years. It has given me the opportunity to see what can happen to you if you only put a little work into yourself. It can morph you into something you might never have witnessed before in your life. For me personally, the weight room was the answer to many of my problems. It gave me the chance to take out my frustrations and stress of life in a positive way that benefited my body. It let me release all of the negative emotions that I had built up over the years in a good physical and mental way. While purging my body of all of these negative aspects, I changed my body in a way that helped me through athletics. It made me faster and stronger by just doing those things that I enjoyed. The weight room became a place of escape where I could go and just work hard for a few hours and then feel good about it in the end. There is nothing better than feeling great about yourself after a hard days work. You feel a sense of accomplishment for what you have just done in the past few hours.

For me, the weight room was a savior, a place of escape from all of the overpowering stresses of life. It gave me the chance to let go of my problems and concentrate on something completely new in my life. It opened my eyes to a world where problems vanished and let me become the person that I am today. This is what the weight room did for me. Imagine what the weight room could do for you, and it will do so. Hard work pays off in the end, as long as you put that hard work in.

MUSCLE OF THE MONTH: SERRATUS ANTERIOR

The serratus anterior has attachments on both the ribs and scapula (shoulderblade). When this muscle is activated your scapula will be drawn forward, producing a winging of the scapula. A secondary function of this muscle is too act as a stabilizing force for the scapula and shoulder complex as a whole. If this muscle is not strong then an individual is more susceptible to shoulder problems and dysfunctions.

Working this muscle will improve overall shoulder strength and even your bench press numbers. Yehhhh

The scapular punch exercise works the serratus anterior muscle. A primary action of the SA is protraction, pushing the shoulder in a forward motion. This can be accomplished by lying supine (back) and putting your arm in front of you. Once in this position, attempt to push your hand further in front of you. Imagine standing at arms length from the wall and then pushing your hand through the wall in one motion. The exercise can be completed with free weights, tubing, bands, or other devices. This is a great exercise for building up your shoulder, upper back and chest strength.

COACH TO COACH

BY Mary Lynn Bush

During the months of January and February, I scheduled the tennis team with Coach Hockett in the fitness center two days a week. Coach Hockett prepared specific workouts in the fitness center that pertained to playing tennis such as speed and agility as well as endurance. To emphasize the importance of these workouts, I helped supervise and recorded the attendance of the players.

This pre-season time in the fitness center provided me with two amazing insights as to the competitiveness of individual players. First of all, certain players only attended after the beginning of the season when these workouts were mandatory. Ironically, some of those players had more tennis experience than others, but never did play well enough to win a varsity match.

Secondly, the players that attended the workouts regularly and pushed themselves during these sessions, applied on the tennis court. They ended up winning more matches even when their specific tennis skills looked weaker. The players that "gave up" in the fitness center also "gave up" on the tennis court.

Now that I've seen the connection between attitude in the fitness center and attitude on the tennis court, I will be able to use this information when making decisions regarding two players of similar ability. The one that worked the hardest in the fitness center will always have the edge.

NUTRITION TOPICS

AS THE SUMMER APPROACHES IT IS IMPORTANT TO MAINTAIN A PROPER DIET. ONE THAT IS FULL OF ALL ESSENTIAL NUTRIENTS, INCLUDING:

CARBOHYDRATES	55—70 %
PROTEIN	12—15 %
FATS	20—25 %
VITAMINS AND MINERALS
WATER

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU DRINK PLENTY OF FLUIDS. IF YOU ARE THIRSTY, THEN YOU ARE ALREADY DEHYDRATED. DRINK EARLY AND OFTEN. WATER IS STILL YOUR BEST BET, BUT IT IS OKAY TO MIX IN A SPORTS DRINK NOW AND THEN.

YOU WILL BE AT YOUR BEST IF YOU ARE EATING A BALANCED DIET, USUALLY 5-6 SMALL MEALS/SNACKS THROUGHOUT THE DAY. TRY TO GET VARIETY IN YOUR MEALS. TRY NEW THINGS AND FIND WHAT WORKS BEST WITH YOUR BODY.

DON'T FORGET ABOUT REST.....ALLOW YOUR BODY TIME TO RECOVER
