

Art Enrichment

The worlds we share

From the world under our bed, to our backyard, to our community, nation, planet and beyond, we explore how connected we are to all others. From the beauty of the tiniest cell to the wonder of the infinity of space, each provides us with an opportunity to better understand how our worlds are related. Artists have used these worlds as catalysts for their creativity, and we will follow in their footsteps as we create artworks that reflect this variety and our experiences in all our worlds.
